

Male Chorus Association Announces Music Scholarships

The Associated Male Choruses of America (AMCA), an association with member choruses across the upper part of the United States, has announced their 2009-10 music scholarship program. This annual program is open to all qualified and deserving students of music. This year, successful candidates will be awarded scholarships ranging in value from $1,000 to $1,200 each. To be eligible, applicants must be enrolled in undergraduate university/college music programs during the 2009-2010 academic years. Preference is for students specializing in vocal music studies, though students of instrumental music are also eligible.

Candidates must be sponsored by a member chorus of the Associated Male Choruses of America. Interested candidates are required to complete an AMCA application form, submit it with three letters of reference plus a copy of their most recent transcript of courses/grades.

To obtain further information about the scholarship program and receive a scholarship application form, please contact:
